I never wondered if I was afraid When there was a challenge to take;
It's time to start livin'
Time to take a little from this world we're given Time to take time,
For Spring will turn to Fall
In just no time at all.

"Pippin"

if not brought forth, they will atrophy.

A human being should be able to change a diaper, plan an invasion, butcher a hog, conn a ship, design a building, write a sonnet, balance accounts, build a wall, set a bone, comfort the dying, take orders, give orders, cooperate, act alone, solve equations, analyze a new problem, pitch manure, program a computer, cook a tasty meal, fight efficiently, die gallantly. Specialization is for insects.

Courage is the complement of fear. A man who is fearless cannot be courageous. (He is also a fool.)

Be wary of strong drink. It can make you shoot at tax collectors — and miss.

You live and learn, or you don't live long.

Everything in excess! To enjoy the flavor of life, take big bites. Moderation is for monks.

I sat one day,
Just looking up at the sky
Do you know what I saw?
Clouds joining hands in friendship Forgiveness in the wind
The realization of the beauty of colour

Softness in the eyes of nature Giving all it's got to show the Joy and Love that there is on the ground we walk on

There had been a storm,
You could say a fight,
It just couldn't continue though,
For the happiness was too great The understanding in each other was something of God's creation.

The creation of the earth,
    of something good,
Do you want to know who I saw while looking up at the sky?
A Friend.

"Our revels now are ended. These our actors, As I foretold you, were all spirits and

No one ever came to grief except honorable grief by riding horses;
no moment of life is lost that is spent in the saddle.

Youngmen have often been ruined by owning horses and by backing horses, but never by riding them.

Unless of course you break your neck, which taken at full gallop is not a bad death to die.

Warm, Jolly, Friendly, and often getting flustered, Always full of congeniality,
And a special kind of gentleness,
She concerns herself more with the welfare of others, that of her own. One can laugh with her, and cry with her, and even in bad times, her smile will soon light up your day.
She is my friend.

Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul,
As the swift seasons roll!
Leave thy low-vaulted past!
Let each new temple, nobler than the last,

That soars to the sea
And if I'm never tied to anything I'll never be Free

I wanted such a little thing from life
I wanted so much
When I wanted worlds to paint
And costumes to wear
I think it was here Cause it never was there

There's a cloud in the sky, and it's raining on you Still you try to keep dry, but your troubles leak through And you've lost all could, feeling sad Choose your reveries Keep the good, leave the bad.

Take a few of these, the sweeter memories
Don't forget them please, the sweeter memories
To set your mind at ease, the truest remedies
Are the sweeter memories.

There's a life full of pain and a life full of glee
So you see, the rain doesn't mean much to me
For I know that it pays making light of living tragedies Make your days be bright.
Take a few of these...the sweeter memories
Please.

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood And looked down one as far as I could To where it bent in the undergrowth

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim Because it was grassy and wanted wear; Though as for that the passing there Had worn them really about the same,

I shall be telling this with a sigh Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I — I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference

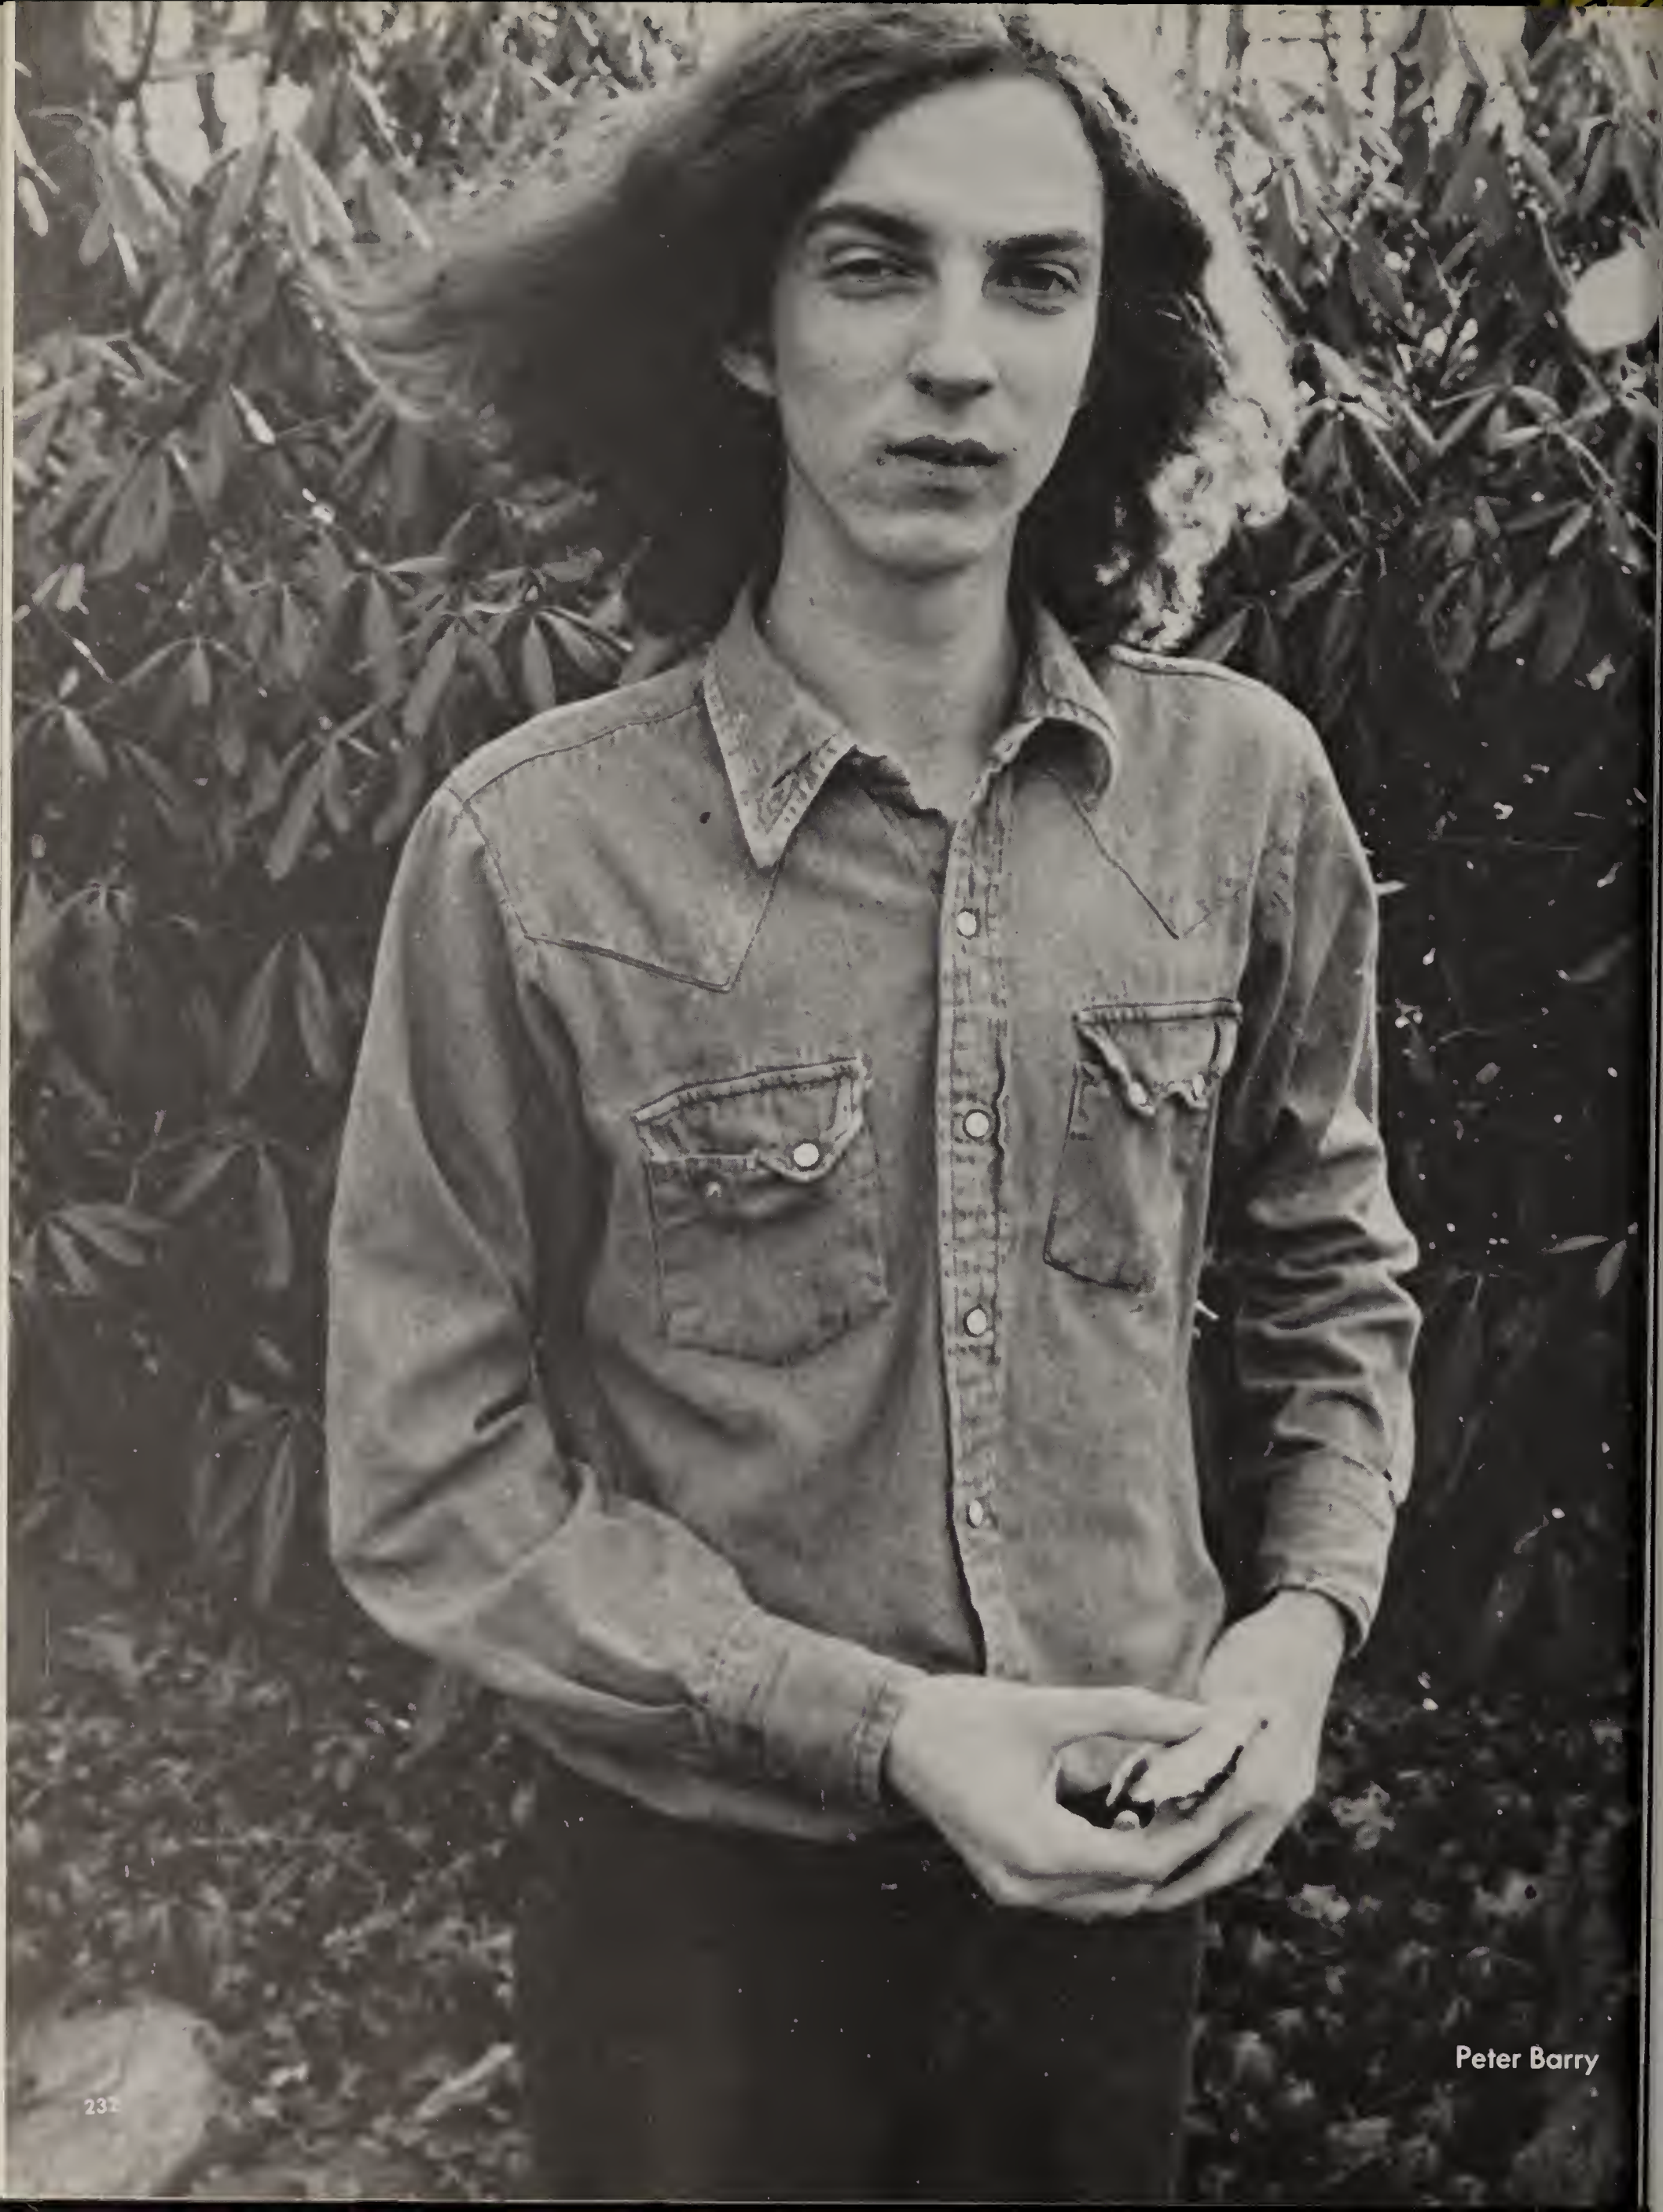

Robert Frost

West is where we all plan to go someday. It is where you go when the land gives out and the old-field pines encroach. It is where you go when you get the letter saying: FLEE, ALL IS DISCOVERED. It is where you go when you are told that you are a bubble on the tide of empire. It is where you go when you hear that thar's gold in them-thar hills. It is where you go to grow up with the country. It is where you go to spend your old age. Or it is just where you go . . .

Woman was created from the rib of man
Not from his head to rule him.
Not from his feet to be trampled upon
But from his side, to be equal to him, Under his arm, to be protected,

James Joseph Solomito, also known as "Soli," "The Mad Bomber."

Destruction of teachers' nerves

The Crime

On September 13, 1969 Solomito entered Friends Academy, armed with a pen and pencil, and proceeded to completely destroy the nerves of his teachers. Solomito was arrested by the administration and sentenced to five more years at the Academy. On June 7, 1975, Solomito escaped from Friends Academy and is now being sought.

may god bless and keep you always may your wishes all come true may you always do for others and let others do for you may you build a ladder to the stars and climb on every rung and may you stay forever young — may you grow up to be righteous may you grow up to be true may you always know the truth and see the light surrounding you may you always be courageous stand upright and be strong and may you stay forever young — may your hands always be busy may your feet always be swift may you have a strong foundation when the winds of changes shift may your heart always be joyful may your song always be sung and may you stay forever young — forever young forever young say you'll stay forever young —
